Hidden in the Hills 2017! Two Art-Filled Weekends ... Come, see, enjoy!

Justine is excited to be participating in her 14th HITH Artists' Tour and Sale! Taking place during the last two weekends of November, this signature event is a delightful art adventure to enjoy. It features 174 artists in 44 studio locations throughout the scenic Desert Foothills communities of Cave Creek, Carefree, and North Scottsdale.

Justine will be exhibiting again at Coyote Crossing Studio Tour location 3 in Cave Creek.

Artists displaying at Studio 3 include:

- ▶ Dick Mueller — Host will be displaying his colored pencil and graphite pencil drawings
- ▶ Justine Mantor-Waldie — will be exhibiting inks and etching paintings
- ▶ Karen Friend — art gourds & mixed media
- ▶ Hal Stewart — bronze sculpture

At the Tour, take the opportunity to look at the artwork closely and enjoy seeing the magic of the painting technique that Justine has invented. The special experience of Hidden in the Hills Studio Tour and Sale gives the visitor a chance to speak to the artist, talk about the work and share in a much more intimate experience than the usual art exhibit.

While at Studio 3, see Justine's newest paintings, a pair of flowery desert delights!

Justine has three paintings juried into The Sonoran Arts League 2nd annual Small Works Show. This show features works of art by Arizona artists, both regionally and nationally known and includes affordable, exceptional paintings, sculptures and mixed-media pieces in a wide variety of themes. One of the most popular of the League's exhibits, this is a favorite of many art lovers due to the smaller scale and affordability of the art. While sizes vary, each artist has been asked to create works close to a 12" x 12" configuration.

The exhibition officially opens to the general public on December 3 and continues through January 7, 2018.
